Where you will be based

Community

Why we want you

If you are a sociable, caring person this role is perfect. You'll need to be happy to chat but also willing to learn about geriatric nutrition, taking guidance from our carers to keep everyone safe.

What you will be doing

- Preparing food and drink for our residents
- Sharing some time with people to make eating and drinking a pleasure
- Listening to carers and ensuring people have access to the right foods and drinks for them

The skills you need

- You'll be good at reading people, picking up signs if someone isn't themselves
- You'll be self-motivated and willing to work independently at times
- You'll be a people person who enjoys the company of older people
- You'll be able to remember residents' preferences or red flag items e.g. chocolate for diabetics
- You'll be willing to learn about nutrition for older people

What's in it for you

- Full Induction including Dementia Friends Session
- Role Specific Training
- We offer references for our volunteers
- And you just can't beat that smile a perfectly made brew can bring. You've done that!
- Experience in a care setting for your CV

Disclaimer

We will do a DBS check but a criminal record won't necessarily mean you can't volunteer.
